

Writers' Group!

- If you enjoy writing and would like to try some different techniques and a few types of poetry, this is your chance!
- We'll write haiku and each student's haiku will be submitted to the Cherry Blossom Festival Haiku Contest. *
- We'll also try other poetic forms and enter your best work in another Canadian poetry contest. *
- We'll work on short memoirs, stories from your own life.

*Contests are optional and free.

Instructor Nancy Hundal is a Vancouver children's writer, author of 11 picture books and 3 middle grade novels. She was also McKechnie's teacher-librarian for 34 years!

Who: Students in Grades 4 to 7

When: 3:15 to 4:15, January 24th to March 13th (Wednesdays) – 8 classes

Where: Room 105, Ms. Williston's room

Fee: $140